Inspirational Thought: How does one get through the challenges of life untouched? Well, we don't. Through sacred scripture, sermons, and songs -- as well as secular speakers – we are reminded that our lives are touched by others. Our hearts sink when we hear of another shooting, violence against a certain race, political view, religion, social status, children, women, LGBTQ community, etc. Do we think twice before going into public places for the fear of an active shooter? Do we take a second glance at that person who looks suspicious? We are living into a new normal, which is living in the land of grief. As the Apostle Paul says, “When one part of the body suffers we all suffer.” And if the world events weren't enough, we have our own problems to deal with. As a plaque in my office so eloquently says, “Life is fragile handle it with prayer.” These words – when put into action – help get us through the challenges which life throws at us. When we pray we talk with God. This is so simple, yet has profound results. Praying unleashes a force that will help us to raise above what troubles us to a calm path. Praying gives us a pathway where we connect with God and with others so that we share in their joys and concerns. Together we can now become the battle cry, and praying is one way that we may accomplish this. It is time to pray. It is time to be grounded in God.

Prayer of the Week: God of grace, you have given us minds to know you, hearts to love you, and voices to sing your praise. Fill us with your Spirit that we may celebrate your glory and worship you in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Thought of the Week: What do your prayers mostly center on?
